

DAN PETROSKI, WINEMAKER, LARKMEAD & PROPRIETOR OF MASSICAN WINERY
THE GRAPE NATION | EPISODE 106, MARCH 27, 2019

Brooklyn born Dan Petroski made his way uptown to Columbia University, played a little football, headed downtown to NYU Biz School before moving into marketing, finance and advertising at Time Inc. and Sports Illustrated. His love of wine and a college friend with connections got Dan over to Sicily. Dan came back to the states, made his way to Cali to follow his passion and the rest fermented into a career in wine. Dan is the winemaker at Larkmead Vineyards and owns Massican Winery in California and was the 2017 Winemaker of the Year from the SF Chronicle.

LISTEN TO THE PODCAST HERE